VIRGINIA RESIDENCE:

The records of the National Archives show that a c claim for pension was made by Susan Oglesby, under the Act of July 4, 1836 on account of the service of her husband Richard Oglesby, in the Revolutionary war, R 7779.

The records show that her claim was not allowed because because she failed to furnish the required proof of service and marriage, that on Feb 3 1848, the papers in her application were withdrawn from the pension files and sent to the House of representatives for action by that body and were never returned to the Archives, therefore, there is on file no statement of hers in regard to the service of Richard Oglesby or of their marriage; the Congressional records show that in the 30th Congress, first session, page 358, of the Jonrnal, the petition for pension of Susan Oglesby, widow of Richard Oglesby was referred to the Committee of the House on Revolutionary pensions and is recorded "Dischargdd :Laid on table". In 1842 one Robert H Gray of Lynchburg, Va. as agent for Susan Oglesby of Bedford Co Va, named above made inquiry in her behalf in regard to her claim for pension.

He stated that Richard Oglesby, removed from Albemarle to Nelson county and from thence to Bedford, no dates given, that the soldier served at least nine or ten months in the Revolutionary war, no dates nor officers names shown.

He referred to those who made affidavits as relatives of the soldier, one a son, Daniel Oglesby and the intimation is that 2 of the others, Mrs Christiana Holt of Bedford Co and Mrs Conny WITT of Nelson Co were daughters of the soldier but no definite statement can be made. A Mrs Noel was living in 1842, a grand dau of the soldier, she was possibly a dau of Mrs Christiana Holt, statement vague. 2 other daughters over 60 in 1842 were referred to, names not shown.
